

WELCOME TO ARCOSANTI

You are on Hohokam and Yavapai Apache native land

As many communities around the world are doing important anti-racism and anti-oppression work, Arcosanti Community Council wants to acknowledge that we are all guests on and stewards of this land we have the privilege of calling home.

Prior to the impact of colonization, this land was tended by the Hohokam and Yavapai Apache people, and served as a critical trading route for the Hopi, and Navajo people. We ask you to join us in acknowledging the Hohokam, Hopi, Yavapai Apache, Navajo people, and other indigenous communities, from whom this land is home, their elders, both past and present, as well as future generations.

As the current residents and workers on this land, we continue to: educate ourselves on the challenging truths of the past, be good neighbors to those in our physical proximity including the indigenous communities, and welcome ideas and inclusive strategies from the future generations that will inherit this land after us.
